APPLICATION CHECKLIST AND INSTRUCTIONS

North Park University prepares a file for each applicant, which is reviewed individually and carefully when complete. A decision is made based on the contents of the file. A personal interview may be requested to gain additional information and perspective beyond what is presented in the file. In some situations, additional documents or specific information may be requested.

All required documents must be submitted directly to:

Office of Undergraduate Admission, Box 19

North Park University

3225 West Foster A venue

Chicago, Illinois 60625-4895

Fax: (773) 244-5243

Email: dataentry@northpark.edu

Documents submitted to other North Park offices, staff, faculty, or coaches, are not considered official.

First-year Applicants

- ☐ Correctly complete all required information on the application
- ☐ Pay non-refundable application fee: $40
- ☐ Request that official high-school transcripts be submitted directly to North Park University
- ☐ Arrange for submission of items that might not be included in high-school transcript:
  - Advanced Placement course transcript (AP)
  - International Baccalaureate (IB)
  - Transcripts for all college-level work
- ☐ Arrange for submission of recommendations. Give the forms provided to the appropriate person (non-relative)
  - Academic – by school principal, counselor, teacher, or professor
  - Personal—by pastor, coach, mentor, or employer
- ☐ Arrange for submission of Standardized Test Scores to North Park
  - North Park University accepts the ACT, the SAT, or both tests (SAT writing score required)
- ☐ Arrange for submission of final high-school transcript upon graduation or end of studies at previous institution. (May not be faxed; must be official.)

Homeschooled Students

North Park University welcomes homeschooled students and the application requirements are the same as for other students. Under the section of the application where you list high schools attended, write homeschooled, in addition to any formal high schools you have attended. In addition to a transcript, a letter to the admission office helping us understand your homeschooling experience is recommended.

Transfer Applicants

- ☐ Correctly complete all required information on the application.
- ☐ Pay non-refundable application fee: $40
- ☐ Request that official college transcripts be submitted directly to North Park University

Transfer students with more than 12 hours of transferable credit do not need to submit a high-school transcript unless requested by the Office of Undergraduate Admission or if college courses taken during high school were applied to meet high-school graduation requirements. Students with fewer than 12 hours of transferable college credits will be considered first-year students and should follow those instructions.

- ☐ Submit recommendations – give the forms provided to the appropriate person (non-relative)
- ☐ Send final transcript upon end of studies at previous institution.
