Academic scholarships of 10% to 30% are available for graduate management students who have an undergraduate or graduate degree GPA of 3.0 or above on a 4.0 scale. Scholarships of 35% are also available for graduate management students who are full time employees of nonprofit, governmental, and military organizations as well as former members of the Peace Corps and AmeriCorps.

Furthermore, graduates from any graduate degree program in the School of Business and Nonprofit Management are eligible to take courses at a 50% tuition discount for the rest of their life, including courses leading to a second graduate degree. Usually, a second degree may be obtained for less than $11,000.

Fall courses begin August 27th. Apply today!
