North Park University
Study Abroad Programs offered by the International Office

Group Programs

Södra Vätterbygdens Folkhögskola (Sweden): fall semester, requires 1+ year of college-level Swedish

Baden Powell Institute (Mexico): spring semester, requires 1.5+ years of college-level Spanish

Exchange Programs

Argentina	Universidad del Salvador	Wide variety of subjects taught in Spanish.
Finland	University of Tampere	Social Science courses taught in English.
Iceland	University of Iceland	Business, literature, and Scandinavian Studies courses taught in English.
	University of Akureyri	Economics, Law, Environmental Studies, and Arctic Culture courses taught in English.
Norway	University of Bergen	Communication Arts, Literature, Politics, Scandinavian Studies, Sciences, and Sociology courses taught in English.
Russia	International University in Moscow	Russian language, literature, culture, and politics classes taught in English.
Sweden	Jönköping International Business School	Wide variety of business, politics, and law courses taught in English.
	Mälardalen University	Business, Communication Arts, Literature, Math, and Science courses available in English; Scandinavian Studies program offered in Swedish.
	University of Jönköping, School of Communication and Education	Media Studies, Intercultural Communication, and Scandinavian Studies courses taught in English.
	University of Jönköping, School of Health Sciences	Two mini-term courses taught in English.
Various	International Student Exchange Program (ISEP)	Courses offered at ≈140 universities around the world. Language of instruction varies.

Fee Based Programs

Various	Council for Christian Colleges and Universities	Subject and region based programs at 4 domestic and 7 international locations.
Various	International Student Exchange Program (ISEP-DIRECT)	Select programs at ≈15 universities around the world. Language of instruction varies.

Short Term Academic Study Tours

Proposed by Academic Departments. Sites vary by year. Recent programs have included Bahamas, Burkina Faso, Canada, Egypt, Ethiopia, Costa Rica, France, Greece, Korea, Sweden, and Thailand.

STUDY ABROAD PROCESS @ NPU

Student submits NPU Study Abroad Application to International Office
(January of the year preceding the study abroad program)

Applicants for Group Programs (SVF and Morelia) meet with Selection Committee
(February)

Students selected for SVF or Morelia receive acceptance letters from the International Office
(February-March)

Accepted applicants for ISEP programs complete ISEP applications
(February 1 deadline for fall programs; September 1 deadline for spring programs)

Students placed on ISEP programs receive confirmation of their host sites.
(March-April for fall programs; September-October for spring programs)

Accepted applicants for Bilateral Exchanges and Fee-based programs complete secondary applications
(Deadlines vary; usually March for fall programs and October for spring programs)

Students accepted at bilateral exchange partners or fee-based programs receive confirmation of placement.
(April for fall programs; October for spring programs)

All students participating in a study abroad program complete GLBS 1000: Pre-Study Abroad Seminar
(Quad/Semester before program runs)