Youth Outreach Associate

Does your heart break for at-risk teens? TreeHouse is a Christian outreach ministry that offers hope, guidance, and unconditional love to teens—and it may be just the place for you!

TreeHouse is a relational-focused ministry touching the lives of at-risk youth and their families through Support Groups, Going Deeper (a youth group style program), Bible Studies, one-to-one mentoring, adventure trips and activities. We're looking for individuals with a desire to engage in the lives of youth and challenge hearts to join our ever-growing team!

Primary Objective of Position: To participate in delivering youth program services and maintain ongoing relationship-focused mentoring with TreeHouse youth. A Youth Outreach Associate:

- Assists Area Director by participating in planning and organizing program and project activities; help set goals for ministry which includes trips, activities, weekly meetings, youth recruiting, and Program content.
- Carries out assigned responsibilities in such Program areas as Support Group, Going Deeper, growth groups, trips, activities, workdays and one-to-one times with youth.
- Maintains and follows up with assigned careload of program participants.
- Performs public relations duties by serving as TreeHouse's representative to community agencies; maintains liaison with courts, probation officers, etc.
- Raises funds for TreeHouse through personal network (training provided).
- Lives life and shares faith with students. Is eager to represent and present the gospel to others.

Experience and Qualification Requirements:

- Must love kids and care deeply about restoring hope to families
- Bachelor's degree, preferably in ministry, social work, psychology, education, or a related field
- Significant experience working with youth, whether in a volunteer or employment capacity
- Must demonstrate depth of knowledge of biblical studies and a mature faith in Jesus Christ which is compatible with the TreeHouse statement of faith and philosophy of ministry
