• Course meets a general education requirement

NOTE: Students may also select an interdisciplinary Philosophy major. This major requires 28sh in philosophy and 16sh of upper-division work in another discipline. The ONLY required course is PHIL 3590. The Philosophy department and Humanities faculty must approve the courses that will count toward the major. The additional 16sh may or may not be part of a double major. The philosophy department shares with the other departments in the Faculty of Humanities a common spirit and orientation toward the true, the good, and the beautiful. As such philosophy majors are required to enhance their major learning experience with one course each in History, English and Art.

The Academic Planning Guide is designed as a guide for students planning their course selections. The information on this page provides only a suggested schedule. Actual course selections should be made with the advice and consent of a faculty advisor. While accurately portraying the information contained in the college catalog, this form is not considered a legal substitute for that document. Students should become familiar with the catalog in effect at the time in which they entered the institution.
