

Urban Village Church (a United Methodist congregation) is seeking creative, organized, and energetic individuals who have a passion for children's faith formation to apply to become one of our Directors of Children's Ministries.

The successful applicant will have a heart for God, a heart for children and families, and a heart for being a part of a staff team that's leading a new and exciting church in Chicago.

The position requires skills in volunteer recruitment and training, curriculum development and selection, and administrative oversight. The Director of Children's Ministries for our Downtown location is 15 hours a week and will also include some attention to our Wicker Park worship location. The Director of Children's Ministries for our Andersonville location is 10 hours a week. Salary is based on individual's experience.

For more information and/or to apply for the position, contact Christian Coon, chris@urbanvillagechurch.org. Applicants are encouraged to send a resume and reflections on your approach to children's ministries. Ethnic minorities are strongly encouraged to apply.
