Instructions for the Application for Master's Degree Programs

- 1. Fill out the application form if you are seeking a degree. Separate applications must be filled out for those applying for a certificate or the Doctor of Ministry program. Please contact the Admissions Office for more information.
- 2. Give enclosed recommendation forms to your references. The reference forms should be sent to us by the individuals completing each form before the due date.
 - a. Sign the waiver on the back of each form if you wish to waive your right to review the recommendation
 - b. Direct those filling out the reference forms to send them directly to North Park Theological Seminary
 - c. Do not choose a family member as a reference
- 3. Submit two essays with your application (double-spaced)
 - a. Write a brief autobiographical statement of no more than 750 words that includes separate sections with the following headings:
 - A description of your family background
 - The main events surrounding your commitment to Jesus Christ
 - The important events contributing to your decision to enter Christian ministry or theological studies
 - A description of a painful experience in your life and how it has shaped your journey and identity as a follower of Jesus.

b. Write a personal description of no more than 750 words in which you include separate sections with the following headings:

- · Describe your temperament and personality as fairly as you can, commenting on both your strengths and weaknesses
- What are your vocational goals and how do you anticipate your seminary education to prepare you?
- For dual degree students only: Please elaborate on why are you seeking a graduate management degree in conjunction with your Seminary coursework? Specifically, in what ways do you expect your management education to influence and impact your career in ministry?
- Comment on the encouragement you have received, if any, from family and friends concerning your desire to enter seminary, and how others perceive your gifts for ministry
- Describe any previous ministry experiences
- · Comment honestly on any relevant medical or psychological history; if appropriate, provide letters from counselors
- 4. Enclose a non-refundable $25 application fee. Make checks payable to North Park Theological Seminary. You may also pay by credit card over the phone.
- 5. Request an official academic transcript from each undergraduate, graduate, or professional institution that you have attended and have them sent directly to the Admissions Office of North Park Theological Seminary before the due date. If you have attended another seminary within the last five years and did not complete a degree, a letter of good standing from the dean is required.
- 6. Note that international students and students whose first language is not English have additional requirements and an earlier due date.
- 7. Sign the application and return it along with the essays and application fee to the Seminary Admissions Office.

Note: North Park Theological Seminary admits students on an ongoing basis but does have application deadlines. Please contact the Seminary Admissions Office at (800)964–0101, or visit our Web site at www.northpark.edu/sem for exact due dates for your situation. Early application is advisable for optimum consideration in financial aid and housing. This application will be reviewed by the Admissions Committee when it has been fully completed and when each of the items listed above have been received.

Admission Process

Listed below is the process by which a student is admitted to North Park Theological Seminary.

- 1. The application form is sent to the Seminary Admissions Office before the deadline.
- 2. Applicants are encouraged to contact the Admissions Office if they have questions about the status of their application or anything else.
- 3. When all of the documents have been received by the Admissions Office, interviews may be conducted with the recommending pastor or the applicant. Then, the application is reviewed for acceptance by the Admissions Committee. A letter stating the decision is then sent to the applicant.
- 4. Once accepted and after the student's FAFSA has been received, eligible students will be reviewed for financial aid. After the financial aid offer has been made, students receive registration information from the school. The dean of academic life also assigns an advisor to the student. Students are eligible to start classes at the beginning of any term. Students must apply for housing by the May 1st deadline, as housing is assigned on a first come, first served basis.
- 5. For additional information on standard admission requirements, please see our website.

International Students

All applicants who are not citizens of the United States should submit the following documents:

- · Affidavit of support and copy of a bank statement to show finances available for your educational and living expenses.
- TOEFL test scores (www.ets.org/toefl) North Park's TOEFL code is: 1556. If you have studied in English at an undergraduate or graduate level, the TOEFL test may be waived.
- Submit your academic transcripts to be evaluated by an organization such as Educational Credential Evaluators (www.ece.org) and request that the evaluation be sent directly to North Park Theological Seminary.
- Copy of your passport

Please see the website for English proficiency requirements, affidavit of support form and more information about how to apply as an international student.

Dual Degree Students

North Park Theological Seminary offers a dual degree option—combining a seminary degree with a business degree. In addition to the required material, dual degree students must also provide a resume. If you have an undergrad GPA below 3.0, you will need to take the GRE or GMAT. For more information, please visit www.northpark.edu/Seminary.

Church Recommendation Form

Applicant's name
Enrollment date
Degree program

Dear Church Committee:

As the local church, your role is crucial in the recruitment and calling of men and women into Christian service and leadership. God's call has always involved more than one individual's private decision. The New Testament is clear that there are requirements and qualifications for ministry which must be met by those who would serve. These include the recognition of one's gifts by those being served; therefore, the call to ministry is a shared process by the candidate and his or her local church.

A committee to evaluate the candidate must be comprised of at least two members of the church who are in staff or lay leadership roles. The interview may take place in person or over the phone. The applicant may choose to submit in writing in advance his or her answers to the questions in Section A, but the committee should still meet with the applicant and discuss his or her answers.

Whether or not the candidate enrolls in seminary, North Park believes the process of having candidates dialog with home churches is one that has value in itself. Please feel free to include any additional questions and comments that may be useful. If you have any questions, please call the NPTS Admissions Office at (800) 964–0101 or (773) 244–6229.

- 1. As a committee, meet with the candidate and discuss the questions and issues in Section A: "Interview with the candidate."
- 2. As a committee, meet without the candidate present and discuss the issues in Section B: "Questions to address within the committee."
- 3. Committee members should sign this recommendation form. Have someone act as secretary for the meeting to submit the answers to the questions on a separate sheet of paper and mail it with this form promptly to:

North Park Theological Seminary

Admissions Office, Box 40 3225 West Foster Avenue Chicago, Illinois 60625–4895

4. Keep a copy of the form.

Section A

Qı	Questions for the interview with the candidate:
	what gifts for ministry do you have and in what ways have you demonstrated these gifts? How have you enriched your church and/or the Church at large?
2.	What joys and difficulties have you experienced in ministry?
3.	What obstacles do you foresee having to face in seminary (e.g., financial, theological, personal, familial, others)?

Section B

Q	uestions to address within the committee without the candidate present:
4.	How long and how well have the committee members known the candidate?
5.	Has the church recognized the gifts for ministry mentioned in Section A, Question 1? Is the candidate realistic in assessing these gifts?
6.	List reasons why you would or would not recommend this person for ministry given appropriate training in his or her particular area of interest. At there any potential problem areas or concerns for this person's effectiveness in ministry?
