Purpose:

This course is designed to explore the meaning of credentialed and endorsed ministry in The Evangelical Covenant Church and the responsibilities and competencies of those called to these positions. Areas of inquiry will include: licensing, commissioning, ordination, ethical guidelines, formal care and discipline, collegiality, ministerial health and boundaries.

Objectives:

By the end of the course the student will be able to:

1. Articulate clearly a Biblical and theological understanding of vocational life and ministry in The Evangelical Covenant Church
2. Participate fully in personal and vocational assessments as they relate to the practice of ministry
3. Know and apply the Rules for the Ordered Ministry including the crucial area of care and discipline
4. Recognize how the Ethical Principles for Covenant Ministers apply to one's life and ministry
5. Identify patterns within the ministerial journey that contribute to health and excellence
6. Create a "Life Rule", including a self-care plan, which embraces a spiritual and behavioral code that sustains ministerial health
7. Commit to and identify an accountable relationship that will help sustain one's public ministry

Requirements:

Note: One of the keys to successful ministry is a deep understanding of one's self, including one's strengths and vulnerabilities. This knowledge can only increase the pastor's capacity for healthy, impactful ministry. Inventories, conversations and times for reflection comprise this process, which is designed to enhance self-understanding and identify practical steps for further growth as a pastor and person. To this end this course will build on the work you did early in your time at seminary with Midwest Ministry Development Network

Full attendance and participation throughout the entire class time is expected. No early dismissals for travel plans can be accommodated. All readings are considered pre-readings for the course, and are expected to be read in advance.

The required texts are available at Covenant Bookstore, and may be ordered directly through <http://www.covenantbookstore.com/cecoexorpr.html> Extra copies are also in the stacks at Brandel Library.
