ABOUT NORTH PARK THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

HISTORY

In 1891, the Swedish Evangelical Mission Covenant of America (now the Evangelical Covenant Church) founded a college and seminary in Minneapolis that was moved to Chicago three years later. The Evangelical Covenant Church (ECC) has its roots in historical Christianity as it emerged in the Protestant Reformation, in the biblical instruction of the Lutheran State Church of Sweden, and in the great spiritual awakenings of the 19th century. These three influences have, in large measure, shaped its development and are to be borne in mind when seeking to understand its distinctive spirit. The ECC adheres to the affirmation of the Protestant Reformation regarding the Scriptures as the Word of God and the only perfect rule for faith, doctrine, and conduct. It has affirmed the historic confessions of the Christian church, particularly the Apostles' Creed, while at the same time it has emphasized the sovereignty of the Word over creedal interpretations. It upholds the pietistic restatement of the doctrine of justification by faith as basic to the dual task of evangelism and Christian nurture, the New Testament emphasis upon personal faith in Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord, the reality of a fellowship of believers that recognizes but transcends theological differences, and the belief in baptism and the Lord's Supper as divinely ordained sacraments of the church. Because of the Covenant's desire that its ministers serve the whole church and honor both believers' baptism and paedobaptist traditions that have characterized its heritage, the denomination requires all of its ministers to set aside personal preferences on this issue. Ministers in the Covenant agree to perform either form of baptism in order to serve the whole church and maintain unity. The ECC also affirms the full equality of women and men in all leadership positions within the church. Strongly affirming the denomination's Annual Meeting decision in 1976 to ordain women, the administration and faculty of North Park Theological Seminary wholeheartedly support women in ministry. The Covenant soon extended beyond its ethnic enclave, incorporating Native Alaskan (1890s), Latino (1950s), African-American (1960s), and Asian-American churches (1960s). Today more than 20% of ECC congregations are classified as ethnic (non-white, the largest being African American) or multi-ethnic. The Covenant and North Park Theological Seminary experience the strength that comes from diversity.

While for over 125 years, North Park Theological Seminary has played a crucial role in instructing students in the Covenant tradition and preserving and shaping the values and character of the Covenant church, today, the ecumenical vision of NPTS has made it an institution where students from a wide variety of denominations are welcomed and the diversity of traditions appreciated.

CITY LOCATION

Our address is Chicago, and our neighborhood (Albany Park) is a microcosm of the world. Our zip code is one of the most ethnically diverse in the United States. Take a five-minute walk from our campus and you're sure to hear an interesting combination of the more than 40 languages spoken in the community we call home. Our location offers a remarkable, true-to-life laboratory for ministry in the real world. It affords our students countless opportunities to encounter human variety and human needs and share the good news of Jesus Christ. Our students serve and worship in local churches with diverse and exciting ministries of outreach and compassion. We've been in this neighborhood for over 125 years, a span of sweeping change all around us. From the start, we have looked at our location as something more than an accident of history. We have viewed it as a gift to us and to our students, who learn in the classroom and on the nearby streets exploring their callings and putting their faith into practice. North Park Theological Seminary is tucked into a residential neighborhood on Chicago's north side, only 10 miles from the architecturally impressive skyline of the city's famous Loop. Here students experience a world-class city that boasts a bustling marketplace of ideas, cultures, and people. Chicago is home to some of the world's best art collections, including those of the Art Institute of Chicago. Our city is famous for its approach to architecture and year-round cultural and music festivals expose the richness of diverse communities. We also have the Cubs, White Sox, Bulls, Bears, and Blackhawks.

MISSION, CORE VALUES, AND DISTINCTIVE EMPHASES

North Park Theological Seminary serves the Church in its great diversity and reflects the values and commitments of the Evangelical Covenant Church.

MISSION

With Christ at our center, we seek to educate and form missional leaders for the global church.

VISION

We envision a diverse community of scholars and practitioners at the forefront of the integration of biblical and theological competency and missional leadership. We seek to form pastor-theologians to send out into the world with the ability to evangelize, educate, and disciple communities using Scripture as their guide, and also to lead and transform communities through the power of the Holy Spirit.

CORE VALUES

North Park Theological Seminary's distinctive character is reflected in three core values, which summarize our institutional identity and characterize our unique learning environment.

Graciously Evangelical: We embrace the centrality of Scripture, live by God's Word, and offer freedom in its interpretation consistent with unity in Christ. We affirm that the liberating gospel of Jesus Christ brings new life to persons, healing to communities, and hope for creation. We affirm women and men in ministry.

Prophetically Ecclesial: We are committed to the whole mission of the church, emphasizing both the Great Commission to make disciples, and the Great Commandment to love God and neighbor. We passionately hold together head and heart, reflection and practice, worship and service, witness and justice.

Relationally Global: We are a worshiping and learning community that welcomes all disciples, emphasizing spiritual as well as intellectual formation. We nurture love for local communities—urban, suburban, and rural. We nurture vision for a global church, valuing the diversity of all God's people. We foster skills for ministry in contexts of cultural diversity.

NPTS INTEGRATIVE EMPHASES

There are six key emphases that integrate our life and learning at NPTS. These flow out of the commitments of the Evangelical Covenant Church and are consistent with those of North Park University. They are reflected across our curricula, woven into our communal life, and together mark our graduates. These distinctive emphases are:

- Scriptural Engagement: The Bible is the life-giving word of God. We engage with the Bible because through it God has engaged us in Jesus Christ by the power of the Holy Spirit. Throughout our living and learning we approach Scripture with critical rigor, passionate devotion, and obedient faith.
- Cultural Engagement: All cultures and peoples are loved by God and both embraced and challenged by the gospel. We live and learn embracing cultural and ethnic diversity. We seek to foster the attitudes and skills essential to hear and express the gospel in diverse cultures and contexts.
- Forming Thoughtful Minds: To love God and neighbor with the mind is a vital aspect of Christian obedience. We nurture careful, sustained reflection in all our living and learning as essential to fruitful ministry and faithful discipleship.
- Forming Godly Hearts: Spiritual wisdom grows and matures through intentional, obedient practice and is essential to ministry. We nurture its growth through curricular and communal emphasis on spiritual practices, spiritual direction, and effective self-care.

- Serving Congregations: Congregations are primary embodiments of the Christian gospel and instruments of the mission of God. Our living and learning are permeated by concern to nurture congregational life through informed and skilled leadership.
- Being Missional: We seek to communicate the gospel through proclaiming Christ, pursuing justice and living with compassion. We seek to foster the attitudes and skills essential for the church to exercise transformative ministries.

ACADEMIC RESOURCES IN CHICAGO

Chicago includes some of the world's richest resources for graduate theological education. It is not without reason that Chicago has been called the theological capital of the world. Collectively, hundreds of students are enrolled in Chicago-area seminaries, and a large number of cooperative ventures, cluster arrangements, and consortia enrich the opportunities for the individual seminary student. The city's seminaries are joined as the Association of Chicago Theological Schools, offering an unparalleled variety of theological resources and courses.

Students at NPTS have access to the resources of this campus, and to the faculty, libraries, research facilities, guest lecturers, and programs of other seminaries in the Chicago area.

ASSOCIATION OF CHICAGO THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS (ACTS)

ACTS was formed in 1984 to provide cooperation in areas of cross-registration, library access and acquisitions, interchange among faculty, and communication among theological schools. Students from the member schools have library privileges at the other member schools.

NPTS students may take courses at any of these schools through a simple process of cross-registration. Tuition is paid to and credit is given by NPTS. The catalogue of courses is available at www.actschicago.org.

THE NORTHSIDE CHICAGO THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE

NCTI is a cooperative venture within ACTS. It was formed in 1971 by five seminaries in the northern part of the Chicago area: North Park Theological Seminary, Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary, Seabury-Western Theological Seminary, University of St. Mary of the Lake (Mundelein Seminary), and Trinity Evangelical Divinity School.

Each year, NCTI offers two joint seminars where students from a variety of traditions come together and learn about their distinctiveness and common characteristics. These seminars may be taken for academic credit through the individual seminaries.
