

Appeal Intent Form

You may request reconsideration of your financial aid award through North Park University’s financial aid appeal process. If you can document a significant change in your family’s financial circumstance or if you believe there are special circumstances that were not considered in your initial awarding please complete the following form. Please mark the appropriate “appeal reasons” boxes below and provide a personal statement if applicable. Please note, depending on the type of appeal you are pursuing, the financial aid office may request additional supporting documents.

Reason for appeal (Mark all that apply)

<input type="checkbox"/>	Unemployment	<input type="checkbox"/>	Medical/dental expenses not covered by insurance exceeding 11% of your adjusted gross income
<input type="checkbox"/>	Death of parent	<input type="checkbox"/>	Tuition expenses for siblings at an elementary or secondary school
<input type="checkbox"/>	Reduction of Income	<input type="checkbox"/>	Unusually high child care or dependent care costs
<input type="checkbox"/>	Parent’s income is limited to public assistance or disability benefits	<input type="checkbox"/>	Homelessness or at risk of homelessness
<input type="checkbox"/>	Divorce or separation	<input type="checkbox"/>	Other: Please complete personal statement below

Personal Statement

Name
NPU Student ID

Signature

Date