2. observe and constructively critique one’s own tradition of Christian worship on the basis of the historical, theological, cultural, and practical norms of Christian worship;
3. articulate key issues (historical, theological, ecumenical) pertaining to the sacraments of baptism and eucharist;
4. describe the theological, historical, and practical connections between word and sacrament;
5. illustrate the connection between the worshipping life of a church and its theological beliefs and ethical actions;
6. design a worship service that takes into account historical, theological, social/pastoral, and cultural factors;
7. analyze the main components of liturgical inculturation and engage the diversity of Christian worship.

Academic Honesty: In keeping with our Christian heritage and commitment, North Park University is committed to the highest possible ethical and moral standards. Just as we will constantly strive to live up to these high standards, we expect our students to do the same. To that end, cheating of any sort will not be tolerated. Students who are discovered cheating are subject to discipline up to and including failure of a course and expulsion.

Our definition of cheating includes but is not limited to:

1. Plagiarism – the use of another’s work as one’s own without giving credit to the individual. This includes using materials from the internet.
2. Copying another’s answers on an examination.
3. Deliberately allowing another to copy one’s answers or work.
4. Signing an attendance roster for another who is not present.

In the special instance of group work, the instructor will make clear his/her expectations with respect to individual vs. collaborative work. A violation of these expectations may be considered cheating as well.

Assessments:

Attendance and Participation (10%)
Regular attendance and participation in class discussion is expected. Any absences over two will reduce your participation grade. Note: part of your participation grade will include: a) completing the one-page description of your worship context/history on August 28; and b) completing all of the required readings. You will be asked to sign a reading log at the end of the semester detailing the approximate percentage of reading done. Assignments turned in late will be penalized 1/3 of a letter grade (e.g., a B will drop to a B-) for each day over the deadline.

Book Review: Worship, Theology, and Ethics in Cone’s Spirituals and the Blues (15%) – Due: Oct. 22
Write an essay (600-800 words) first presenting the main arguments of James Cone’s Spirituals and the Blues and then, based on previous class readings and discussion, elaborating how spirituals might influence the theology and ethics of a church who regularly sung them in worship and devotion.

Sacraments/Ordinance Essay (20%) – Due: Nov. 14
Undergraduate Question (750-1000 words): You are working as a worship leader in a local church when the pastor calls you into her office. “Three weeks from now we have both communion and a baptism, so it’s looking like it’s going to be a long service. Let’s throw them both at the end and try to keep them as short as possible so we don’t run too far over.” Based on your readings and class discussion, give a written response to your pastor including: your understanding of the two sacraments and their connection, how they should be celebrated appropriately in a service, and what adaptations can be made to shorten other parts of the service.

Graduate Question (1000-1250 words): After a service with both the celebration of a baptism and the eucharist, an angry parishioner approaches and declares, “I don’t understand why we do all of this Catholic hocus pocus. We need less empty symbols and mindless rituals and more biblical preaching!” Based on readings and class discussion, write a response to this parishioner that includes: a definition of a sacrament (or ordinance, if this is your tradition), why sacraments/ordinances are important to Christian worship and formation, and how it is integrally connected to the service of the Word.
Field Observation Report and Worship Design (55%)

Part 1 (15%): Field Observation Report (1500 words maximum) - Due: Sept. 26

Choose a Christian worshipping community with which you are quite familiar.
1. Describe the social, cultural and economic makeup of the community.
2. Identify its ecclesiastical affiliation, noting factors from the community’s history that may have influenced its worship practices.
3. Describe the worship space, drawing upon James White’s analysis. Include photos if possible.
4. Identify the leaders and their “style” of leadership while presiding, reading, praying, leading singing, preaching, and celebrating sacraments/ordinances.
5. Describe the principal “non-verbal” languages you find present among the leaders and within the assembly.
6. Comment upon what you discern to be the “high” and “low” points of the congregation’s participation.
7. Provide worship bulletins or outlines from at least three services.

Part II (20%): Worship Inculturation and Adaptation – Due: Oct. 31

Analyze a cultural worship tradition outside of one’s own tradition through secondary resources and site visits. In light of your findings on the cultural tradition, adapt the liturgy described in your field report so that it would help incorporate this tradition into the liturgical life of your church.

There are three parts to this assignment:
1. Research secondary sources on the worship of your chosen cultural tradition to ascertain its main characteristics/distinctives. First, choose one of the book choices listed above from the broad categories: Asian, Latino/a, African American, Euro-American. Then, find articles on a more specific cultural/ecclesial context (e.g., Korean worship, Mexican Worship, African-American Catholic worship, etc).
2. Two site visits to worship services from the chosen cultural context.
3. Write a paper (maximum 1500 words) that gives a brief summary of secondary source research on the chosen culture, compares and contrasts this research with what was observed during site visits, and explains several adaptations that could be made to the liturgy (as described in the field observation report) to better represent the worshiping context of your chosen culture. If it is helpful, imagine that the church of your field report and the church tradition you visited/studied are in the same neighborhood. The church you visited is closing, and a large contingent of the population begins attending your church. How would you adapt your liturgy in light of the new population? (1500 word maximum)

Part III (20%): Worship Service Design with Commentary – Due: Dec. 14

Design a complete service of worship for the congregation used for the Field Observation Report
1. The service will be designed to reflect the readings (Revised Common Lectionary, Year B) for one Sunday in Ordinary Time (note: you do not have to use all four of the readings!):
2. The service will include:
   a. one original prayer of confession or opening prayer
   b. one original prayer of thanksgiving or prayer of intercession
   c. one or more of the readings for the day of the church year selected
   d. a one paragraph summary of the sermon focus

3. Provide the complete text of the liturgy as the worship leader(s) would have it (first line titles and tunes for all hymns/songs, full wording for all other elements). It is not necessary to type out hymn/song texts, ecumenical creeds, and scripture lessons.

4. In the commentary for the order of service, be sure to discuss:
   a. Why a particular element is placed where it is in the order (e.g., How does it relate to that which precedes and follows? How does it fit into the overall framework of the service?)
   b. Why the content of the element is appropriate to the service (e.g., why a particular hymn or song was chosen)
   c. Why changes were made (if any) from the form currently in use by the community
