

AlcoholEdu FOR COLLEGE Haven – UNDERSTANDING SEXUAL ASSAULT

In order to promote a healthy and safe environment at North Park University, we require each member of our incoming undergraduate class to complete two online courses: AlcoholEdu for College and Haven—Understanding Sexual Assault. These programs are designed to empower you to make informed decisions about alcohol and relationships as well as prepare you to respond appropriately to the varying situations and influences you might encounter on a college campus.

Visit www.northpark.edu/Haven-and-AlcoholEdu for more information.

ALCOHOLEDU FOR COLLEGE

Whether you drink or not, this course will empower you to make well-informed decisions about alcohol and help you to reflect on and consider college drinking related issues.

HAVEN – UNDERSTANDING SEXUAL ASSAULT

Learn about healthy relationships, the importance of consent and being a good communicator, and the many ways you can help create the safe, positive campus you want to be a part of.

What are AlcoholEdu and Haven?

Developed by EverFi, a national organization seeking to support high school and college students with critical life skills such as alcohol abuse prevention, sexual assault awareness, and financial literacy, both programs utilize a non-biased, data-driven curriculum. For more information, visit www.everfi.com.

Both courses are confidential, personalized, and consist of two parts each (see above), requiring roughly two to three hours to complete. Hundreds of thousands of college students across the country complete these courses each year. They include the following resources to help you become better informed about important issues that affect your college years and beyond:

- Alcohol-related content featuring videos and hands-on activities
- Helpful tools, like a Blood Alcohol Concentration (BAC) calculator and map of U.S. laws
- Tools and scenarios to define and promote healthy relationships and help spot the warning signs of abuse
- Skill-building exercises and strategies
- Concise, accessible, engaging (and private) educational platform

How do AlcoholEdu and Haven help students?

Surveys of more than 200,000 students who completed the courses report the following results:

- 75% said AlcoholEdu provided them with helpful information and 66% said it helped them learn new facts about alcohol.
- 81% reported AlcoholEdu prepared them to identify the signs of alcohol poisoning and 83% reported AlcoholEdu prepared them to help someone who may have alcohol poisoning.
- 64% said the information presented about BAC would help guide them in creating a plan for making safe and healthy decisions.
- 72% of students who took Haven said they were confident in their ability to support a friend who has been sexually assaulted.
- 79% said they have a good understanding of the definition of sexual assault.
- 81% said they would respect someone who intervened to prevent sexual assault.

Title IX and North Park’s Sexual Assault Policy and Procedures

Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972 is a federal law prohibiting sex discrimination by entities that receive federal funds, including educational institutions. The law is enforced by the U.S. Department of Education, Office of Civil Rights. Based on this federal law, Title IX, North Park has adopted a strict Policy Against Discrimination, Harassment, Sexual Misconduct, Relationship Violence, and Retaliation.

As a Christian institution of higher education, North Park is committed to providing a campus environment characterized by mutual respect among students, faculty, and staff. In this regard, it is the policy of North Park University that any form of sexual offense will not be tolerated. This policy applies to all members of the campus community: students, faculty, staff, and visitors. It applies to incidents that occur on campus property as well as any off-campus functions sponsored or supervised by the institution. North Park is committed to educating the campus community about the prevention of sexual assault, providing support services to victims of sexual assault, investigating thoroughly alleged incidents of sexual assault, and disciplining student and employee perpetrators of any such acts of violence.

More information about Title IX and our policy can be found at www.northpark.edu/about/Title-IX.
